1. Do you think Dadder is an unforgiveable villain, or is there a more sympathetic side to him?
2. What do you think of the title 'Sisters of the Lost Marsh'? Are there any meanings beyond the Fernsby girls themselves? If you could give the book a different title, what would it be?
3. Do you think the Marsh King character is real, or just in Willa's imagination? Are there any real-world explanations for where Grace might have been?
4. What do you think is significant about the setting in this story – the Lost Marsh itself?
5. What do you think it suggests about the Lost Marsh community that reading and maps are so taboo?
6. If you were one of the six Fernsby sisters, which one would you be and why?
7. Why do you think the tinder box is important?
8. What do you think about Grammy and her philosophy – not being druv, 'not by fear and not by nobody' ?
9. What are the different fears we encounter in the story?
10. What do you think the sisters will do with their lives now that they are free from fear and free from the curse?
